ORR's Renovated Greenhouse in Full Bloom

By Kenneth J. Souza

With continued budgetary constraints squeezing out many "non-essential" programs and projects at area schools, it's good to know that with a little perseverance and community involvement, anything can be salvaged.

That's the lesson Old Rochester Regional High School biology teacher Mary Cabral learned recently when she initiated the restoration of the high school's greenhouse. With assistance from the New Bedford School to Career Local Partnership, local business Roy's Glass, and students at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School in Rochester, the once-defunct greenhouse is now in full bloom again.

"I came to ORR six years ago and I'd always seen the greenhouse, but it was in total disrepair," Ms. Cabral said. "The door wouldn't open, the (ceiling) vents didn't work. When we took it upon ourselves to get it fixed, there was never any money in the budget."

In addition, Ms. Cabral's attempts to maintain viable plant life for class purposes were cumbersome, at best. "Without a functioning greenhouse, we'd have to move plants in and out according to the weather," she said.

Then Ms. Cabral saw light at the end of the tunnel in the form of a $2,000 grant from the New Bedford School to Career Local Partnership which allowed them to purchase some of the much-needed materials to repair the dilapidated structure. With additional assistance from Roy's Glass (which repaired the Plexiglas at cost and replaced the storm door), students from Old Colony (who repaired the thermostatically-controlled vent system), and students in Lynn Boudria's environmental class at ORR (who committed to the landscaping work outside the greenhouse and in the adjacent Melissa Duarte Memorial Garden), the project was nearly completed by the end of the school year.

Though the greenhouse is once again functional, there are still a few minor kinks which need to be ironed out, Ms. Cabral said. Mr. Murray's woodworking class at the high school will be making tables for the greenhouse and maybe add a potting bench.

Ms. Cabral cited invaluable assistance from students Ali Sherman, Paul Silvera, Andrea Caron, and Jackie LeClair in helping with the greenhouse project; and the students from Ms. Boudria's class who will be working on the landscaping include: Jesse Steeves, Brandon Empey, Nate Ketchel, Brooke Travers, Sarah Gacek, Rebecca Correia, Rebecca Manoli, and Jen Donovan.

In addition to plans for a Horticulture Club next year, Ms. Cabral hopes to use the resurrected greenhouse for other school and community service projects.

"With the Horticulture Club, we'll be planting seeds, growing flowers, and hopefully have a plant sale next year," she said. "Right now we just have classes in biology and earth science ... but I'd love to see a horticulture class (added to the curriculum). We could have plants in every classroom."

Old Hammondtown Jazz Gets the Gold (Again)

The Old Hammondtown School Jazz Band recently received its seventh gold medal in a row at the International Association of Jazz Educators competition. This year's competition, which was held once again at Stoughton High School, was judged by Rick Stepton and Pat Stout, both former Buddy Rich big band alumni, and Dennis Wrenn, head of music at Algonquin Regional High School.

Both Stepton and Stout gave the band some outstanding comments and were both under the impression that the band was a junior high school group. Dennis Wrenn, who gave a clinic to the band after the competition, was not only impressed with the band but also the fact that so many parents were present for the competition.

On Saturday, June 5, all the gold medal bands from this year's junior high and elementary jazz competition played a concert at the Stanley Park Pavilion in Westfield, Massachusetts. At 12:30 pm the Old Hammondtown Jazz Band took the stage and performed "Tangerine," "Night Train," and "Jazzman" to an appreciative audience. In addition, the OHS group has recently performed a clinic at the Berklee College of Music in Boston, played at the State House for the senior citizens' DOVE awards and played for the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Brockton.

"We bring an appreciation of jazz to all our audiences," said band director Stan Ellis. "At the schools and colleges, the band performs for students who gain an appreciation not only of the music but also gain knowledge that elementary students can perform this music and can perform it well."

"At the forefront of all our activities are the parents of our students and the townspeople of Mattapoisett," Mr. Ellis added. "They continually support the music program at Old Hammondtown and without this continued support, the music program would not exist."

Marion Selectmen's Meeting

June 8, 1999

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, June 8 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Loretta B. Schaefer. Also present were Selectmen Albert E. Winters, Selectman Jonathan "Jody" Dickerson, Town Administrator Ray Pickles, and Secretary Helene Craver.

After signing treasury warrant #50 for the week and approving the minutes of the June 1 meeting, the board unanimously voted to appoint Margot Leatham to the town's Emergency Medical Services for a six-month term and also appointed Joyce West to the Marion Tree

Committee for a term to expire in April, 2000.

At 7:05 pm Chairman Schaefer said they would continue their discussion of the reorganization of the Fire Department which began at last week's meeting. The first phase would include adopting Selectman Dickerson's recommended ten-point plan in working towards accepting the state statute for a permanent Fire Chief at next year's Annual Town Meeting; and the Board of Selectmen would also have to appoint themselves as the Board of Fire Engineers until that time. With that, Selectman Winters moved that the Board of Selectmen appoint themselves as the Board of Fire Engineers for the town, which was unanimously passed.

The board then recessed as Selectmen and convened as the Board of Fire Engineers to consider appointing a part-time Fire Chief. "We had the opportunity to speak with six members of the Fire Department who expressed interest in the Fire Chief's position," Chairman Schaefer said. "Each man came to the discussion with a great deal of caring and dedication for the Town of Marion. The choices in my mind were very difficult ... we tried to make it fair and our plan now is to move forward."

"I think the whole process went well," agreed Selectman Winters. "Each of the six applicants could do a good job as Fire Chief — any one of them could have been chosen and the town would have been well-served. This is going to be a transition period for the town ... and leadership is going to be important."

Selectman Winters moved that Charles Robert Davis be appointed as the town's part-time Fire Chief, effective immediately, for a term through the next Annual Town Meeting. The board unanimously approved the appointment.

"As the Board of Fire Engineers, we plan to work with you to pull the Fire Department together," Chairman Schaefer said. "It's clear to us that we all need to work together."

"We had six good people to choose from," added Selectman Winters. "But only one could be selected. I certainly hope the other five candidates won't see this (as a mark against them) ... and I certainly hope they will continue to work for the Fire Department as they've done in the past."

At 7:15 pm the board reconvened as Selectmen and continued a hearing from last week on a request to transfer an all-alcohol liquor license from Patricia Nicholson, d/b/a as Harriet's Restaurant, to Andrew Oliveira, d/b/a Andrew's Restaurant, Inc. Mr. Oliveira said the establishment will be very similar to Harriet's in ways but also will offer a new, more diverse menu. "We're going to be attentive to the take-out situation with boxed lunches for boating people," he said, "and we're going to do a regular menu with an emphasis on Italian cuisine."

Saturday from 11:30 am to 2:30 pm and dinner served Tuesday through Sunday from 5:00 to 9:30 pm. "Our license is for all-alcohol, but we don't anticipate a big call for mixed drinks," Mr. Oliveira said. "We mostly want to offer beer and wine to accompany the meals." He hopes to have the establishment up and running in about three weeks. With that, the board unanimously approved the liquor license transfer as requested.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, the board received:

• Letter from the Circulation Committee advising that they plan to conduct a walk along Point Road from Route 6 to Creek Road and is actively seeking comments from residents concerning placement and characteristics of the proposed multi-use pathway. Interested residents are encouraged to join them beginning at 9:00 am on Saturday, June 19.

• A letter and petition from 16 residents of Cottage Street reemphasizing the need for street lights along their street. Since their initial request, two of the four street lights have been repaired, but the remaining two street lights which were replaced are not working.

DPW Superintendent Rob Zora submitted a memo in response advising that he contacted Com/ Electric and they assured him that new wiring would be installed soon. "These are the old style (street) lights which have underground wiring and they're more difficult to replace," said Selectman Winters. A copy of the memo will be sent to the residents of Cottage Street.

• Copy of a letter to the editor from Christina Hingston praising the youngsters who are trying to get space for skateboarding in Marion. "They are doing a good job with the information sheet they have been distributing which states their case clearly and politely," she wrote. Ms. Hingston wanted to know if there could be more dialogue on this subject. Chairman Schaefer advised that the people working on this project are always welcome to come in and address their concerns.

• Letter from Barbara Brennan asking if some of the basketball hoops at Silvershell Beach and Sippican School could be lowered from the regulation 10-feet height to 8 feet to allow smaller children to take advantage of the facilities. Selectman Dickerson said they tried doing this a few years back, and it resulted in

LYME DISEASE

My dog gets lots of ticks. Will he get Lyme disease?
Lyme disease is caused by a bacteria and is transmitted by ticks. Unfortunately, Lyme disease is common in this area.

What signs will my dog show?
The most common sign associated with Lyme disease is lameness, often associated with fever. Many dogs show signs, while others are intermittently lame.

Is Lyme disease preventable or treatable?
Yes to both. Vaccines are available for dogs that are fairly effective in preventing Lyme disease. If your dog gets Lyme disease, it can usually be cured by treatment with antibiotics.

vandalism and damage to the basketball hoops, since "everyone thought they were Michael Jordan ... slam-dunking the ball and hanging from the hoops." The board felt it would be best to keep the town basketball hoops at the regulation 10-foot height.

• Request from Edna Bumpus to connect her home to the town sewer line on Parkway Lane. Mr. Pickles explained she would have to get an easement across private property to connect, since the gravity line does not run past her home. In the meantime, the board wanted further information about Ms. Bumpus' septic system and if there is a pending order from the Board of Health in this matter.

• Notice from William D. Ainslie that he is stepping down from the Wastewater Planning Committee to enjoy retirement with his wife.

• Notice from the Benjamin D. Cushing Post 2425 VFW that the annual Fourth of July Parade will be held on Monday, July 5 forming at 8:00 am in the ballfield behind

Mr. Pickles added that the town's fireworks display this year will be held on Sunday evening, July 4.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 8:20 pm. In following their adopted summer schedule, the board's next meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 22 at 7:00 pm.

Rochester Annual Town Meeting

June 7, 1999

By Kenneth J. Souza

Town Moderator Kirby Gilmore called the Annual Town Meeting for the Town of Rochester to order on Monday evening, June 7 at 7:35 pm in the cafetorium of Memorial School having noted the presence of a quorum. After a Salute to the Flag, Mr. Gilmore turned the proceedings over to Board of Selectmen Chairman Richard Cutler, who wished to move that the following non-residents be allowed to speak during the meeting: Executive Secretary James Huntoon, Town Counsel Daniel Perry, Library Director Lucy Loomis, and Conservation Agent Laurell Farinon. The motion was carried unanimously.

Mr. Cutler then made a formal presentation to the SEMASS Partnership and American Ref-Fuel on behalf of the town for remaining a thriving force in Rochester for the last decade. Since opening in August, 1988, the facility has burned an estimated 8.4 million tons of trash which resulted in 4.8 million gigowatts electricity. In addition, SEMASS has returned over $17 million in revenue to the Town of Rochester. Mr. Cutler presented a plaque to SEMASS Plant Manager Michael DeCastro, who thanked the town and, in particular, John Lafreniere of the Board of Health for nurturing a great working relationship with them over the past ten years.

Costa next presented voters with an overview of the town's financial outlook going into this Annual Town Meeting. He noted that the proposed $8.8 million operating budget for Fiscal Year 2000 was mostly comprised of school expenses (66 percent) and fixed costs like insurance and pensions (11 percent).

Mr. Costa also stressed the need to keep money in the town's reserve funds. With some $1.14 million in available Free Cash, he said the FinCom hoped to add another $200,000 to the Stabilization Fund this year bringing the total to just over $1 million. Overall, when compared to its two sister towns, Rochester is in fairly good financial shape, with a tax rate of $12.95 per $1,000 — Marion is at $13.50 and Mattapoisett jumped to $15.94.

Mr. Gilmore continued proceedings with ARTICLE 1, which asked voters to accept the Annual Report of all town officers and committees. The article was passed via unanimous vote.

Under ARTICLE 2, voters were asked to fix the salaries of elected town officials for FY 2000 as follows: Town Moderator ($100); Selectmen members (2 at $2,900 each); Selectmen Chairman ($3,800); Board of Assessors (3 at $4,100 each); Town Treasurer ($13,000); Tax Collector ($9,000); Town Clerk ($9,000); Tree Warden ($500); Constables (2 at $6/hour); Highway Surveyor ($42,500); Board of Health (3 at $500 each); Herring Inspector ($300).

Several amendments were made to individual salary amounts, beginning with Town Clerk Naida Parker, who requested that her salary be increased to $15,000. "I put in at least 22 hours a week," Ms. Parker said. "The Town of Rochester has experienced a lot of growth since I've become Town Clerk ... it's becoming obvious that this office will eventually have to go full-time. I'm just asking to be compensated for the additional hours I'm putting in now."

Tax Collector John Hall also cited an increased work load as his reason for requesting a hike from $9,000 to $15,000; and Highway Surveyor Jeff Eldridge requested an additional $1,500 bringing his salary from $42,500 to $44,000.

With the approval of motions to amend Ms. Parker's salary from $9,000 to $15,000, Mr. Hall's salary from $9,000 to $15,000, and Mr. Eldridge's salary from $42,500 to $44,000, voters carried ARTICLE 2 via majority vote.

Under ARTICLE 3, voters were asked to amend the town's Compensation Plan set forth in Part IV of the Personnel By-Law to include 12 steps spread out over 13 grades. "What we're doing is adding 2.5 percent to each step and removing the police lieutenant's position from the plan," Selectman Cutler said. "We needed more equity in the compensation plan ... we just bumped every number up 2.5 percent." The article was carried via majority vote.

Under ARTICLE 4, Town Meeting was asked to approve an operating budget for the Town of Rochester of $8.78 million for FY 2000. Adjustments were made to various line items to reflect the previously-approved salary increases for elected officials, and FinCom Chairman Michael Costa amended the total operating budget from $8,786,613.26 to $8,797,313.26. The article was carried via majority vote.

Voters readily approved ARTICLE 5 which was essentially a book-keeping item to delete a line from the Capital Planning Committee By-Law adopted last year, and then went on to approve ARTICLE 6 to raise and appropriate funding for various Capital Improvement Projects — although the source of funding was debated in at least two instances.

Tax Collector Tom Gayoski didn't feel that the requested $25,000 to purchase an Infrared Imaging System (IRIS) for the Fire Department and $33,450 to purchase a new three-quarter ton pickup truck with plow for the Highway Department should be placed on Capital Outlay Exclusion overrides. "I don't feel that something that's going to save a person's life should be left to chance on an override when we have close to $1 million in Free Cash and $1 million in the Stabilization Fund," Mr. Gayoski said. "Wouldn't it be prudent to give the tax payers a break?"

FinCom Chairman Michael Costa explained that since these weren't considered "essential" items for the two departments, they should be placed on an override. Voters disagreed, however, by readily approving Mr. Gayoski's motion to amend both line items to fund them through a transfer from Free Cash. Line Item 6-3 to fund architectural and engineering plans for the Highway Barn was also amended from $23,000 to $35,000. With these changes in place, voters approved ARTICLE 6 via majority vote.

Voters unanimously supported the town's bid to purchase a thirteen-acre parcel of land adjacent to Memorial School for $80,000 under ARTICLE 7 with an eye toward future expansion for the school; but defeated a similar land purchase proposal for 13.75 acres located off High Street for $80,000 under ARTICLE 8. This latter property would have been conserved for open space, but had an interested buyer in town and was largely wetlands and not deemed as useful to the town.

"This parcel brings in about $600 a year in tax revenues," Tax Collector Tom Gayoski said. "I don't think it's a good idea to take this property off the tax rolls."

What was expected to be a hot topic of discussion — the appropriation of $1,050,000 to construct, equip, furnish, and landscape a new Police and Communications Building on Dexter Lane under ARTICLE 9 — turned out to be an easy sell to Town Meeting voters. After an in-depth presentation on the proposed project, voters approved the article via majority vote. The override measure now requires approval of the general electorate on a Special Town Election ballot slated for June 23.

Likewise, voters unanimously approved a $150,000 transfer from Free Cash to be added to a $600,000 anticipated grant award to design, construct, furnish, and landscape a new Senior Center on town-owned land under ARTICLE 10; and unanimously approved Rochester's $597,380 share of the requested $1.7 million to begin the first phase of repairs, renovations, and expansion to Old Rochester Regional Junior High School and Old Rochester Regional High School under ARTICLE 11.

Rochester Town Meeting voters also approved:

• $10,000 transfer from Free Cash to be applied towards planning and design for the future expansion of the Joseph H. Plumb Memorial Library (ARTICLE 12);

• $125,000 total transfer from a previously-approved Town Meeting article ($100,000) and the Conservation Commission Land Account ($25,000) to purchase a 6.9-acre parcel of land known as the Rounseville property for the town (ARTICLE 13);

• $2,042 transfer from Free Cash to fund various Natural Resource expenses (ARTICLE 14);

• $2,000 transfer from Free Cash to fund the New Bedford Women's Shelter (ARTICLE 15);

• $15,000 transfer from Free Cash to conduct a feasibility study to establish a town-owned and operated water distribution system (ARTICLE 16);

• $1 transfer from Free Cash to acquire the 1926 relocation layout of Mary's Pond Road, commonly known as the "County Beach" (ARTICLE 17);

• $2,000 transfer from Free Cash for training of the Assessors in Mass-Appraisal Computer Software

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

On Saturday, June 19 at 9:00 am, members of the Marion Circulation Committee will walk along Point Road from Route 6 to Creek Road. The committee has been charged by Town Meeting with developing plans for multi-use recreational pathways on seven roads in Marion, including Point Road. The purpose of this walk is to conduct a visual survey of that portion of Point Road in order to make the initial determinations on how to proceed with the planning of the pathway on that section of roadway.

The committee is actively seeking the comments of residents concerning the placement and characteristics of the pathway. Problems and opportunities known to the residents that might be encountered in the planning of the project will be very helpful, and the members are soliciting their advice in creating a safe, attractive, and useful pathway through the neighborhood.

The committee is asking the neighbors, if they are able, to join us in walking all or a portion of the route. Questions concerning the proposed project will be answered to the best of our ability at this preliminary stage of the process. Regardless of their participation on June 19, residents' views, oral or written, will be given careful consideration throughout the planning process.

This walk is the first step in an open process that will include a number of public meetings and hearings. At each phase, comments from the residents along that portion of Point Road and from other citizens of the town are welcome and will be considered in the planning process to the extent practicable.

Sincerely,
William J. Brennan, Chairman
Marion Circulation Committee

To the Editor:

Recently we took an evening stroll to Shining Tides beach. As we began our walk, we just missed stepping in a large dog mess. Much to our dismay, we then counted over 60 piles of dog doo (of various ages) before we even reached the beach! Why is such a beautiful area seen as an appropriate place to leave one's dog's droppings?

To those of you who walk your dogs there, please pick up after them. And please consider beginning to clean up what is already there. Thank you for keeping Shining Tides a beautiful place for all of us to enjoy.

Sincerely,

CorinnaRaznikov Photography

Movie Songs in Rochester

With a clear, scintillating voice, petite soprano Ruth Harcovitz is often referred to as "the female Pavarotti," giving joy with her beautiful voice and warm personality everywhere she goes. A New England Conservatory graduate, Ruth is also an opera singer. She studied in Europe at the Vienna Academy of Music. Upon her return to the United States she has sung with the Sante Fe Opera, Opera Company of Boston, and Opera New England. She has appeared as soloist with choral societies and orchestras and during the 1997-1998 season she gave nearly one hundred performances with her pianist.

Ms. Harcovitz will be sure to please you with her renditions of your favorite songs from the movies of the thirties and forties when she comes to the Rochester Congregational Church on Tuesday, June 15 from 1:30 to 2:30 pm. This program is sponsored in part by the Rochester Cultural Council, a local agency of the Massachusetts Cultural Council. This program is FREE and is open to the community and is brought to you, in part, by the Rochester Council on Aging.

Beans at the Meetinghouse

On Saturday evening, June 19 at 7:00 pm, the first FREE concert of the 1999 Music at the Meetinghouse Summer Series will kickoff with a performance from The Beans, well-known in the area for their close vocal harmonies in sea chanteys and other songs of maritime New England. The concert will be held on the lawn of the Long Plain Friends Meetinghouse, 1341 Main Street in Acushnet.

The Beans perform both acappella and accompanied by a wide variety of instruments including guitar, Appalachian dulcimer, banjo, mandolin, and concertina. voluntary contribution form to be included with the real estate tax bills.

This year, the committee is delighted to announce that they had enough funds to award five $500 scholarships to Marion residents to pursue education beyond the secondary school level for the academic year 1999-2000. There were 13 outstanding applicants from Old Rochester Regional High School, Bishop Stang High School, Upper Cape Cod Regional Vocational Technical High School, and Tabor Academy. The selection was very difficult. The committee took into consideration each applicant's financial need, character, scholastic record and involvement in community work, as well as extracurricular school activities.

This year the recipients of this award are (in alphabetical order by school): Geralyn Dias, Molly Gilmour, Elizabeth Kalasinsky, and Tyne Lomeland from Old Rochester Regional High School; and Crystal Gates from Upper Cape Cod Regional.

These awards are made possible through the generosity of the taxpayers in Marion that have contributed to the fund. Contributions may be made at any time and may be given in honor of a special person or event or in memory of a loved one. Contributions in any amount are always much-appreciated and are fully tax-deductible.

MORE THAN YOU BARGAINED FOR

If you have a thought toward selling your home on your own, unless you are a Realtor or an attorney, you'll be in for an unpleasant revelation. Selling a home involves a mass of petty details. There's paper work to do, attorneys to be dealt with, a title search to be made, and vital arrangements to be made concerning down payment, escrow acounts and mortgage financing. Unless you're an expert on these subjects, you'll be working at a disadvantage. Erring on any one of these details could ruin your sleeping habits and your financial position.

Honestly, it pays to sell your home through our office. Our full-time business is to keep on top of these details. We are alert to every step of the transaction, know how to make the necessary arrangements, and follow through details. Our staff knows how important it is to protect all parties against misunderstandings and the importance of all agreements being in writing.

Junior Friends

The Mattapoisett Free Public Library would like to start a Junior Friends group this summer. Junior Friends can be a wonderful asset to a public library. By joining a group like this (usually age 12 and up), young people become interested in their library. They develop a sense of ownership and responsibility. Not only is it meeting the needs of the young people who become Junior Friends, but a program such as this is also helpful to library staff and the community.

Regular meetings are an important component to

Movie Review

Gorilla Mist

BY ROB GONSALVES
local@wanderer.com

■ Instinct. Starring Anthony Hopkins and Cuba Gooding Jr. Directed by Jon Turteltaub. Running time: 126 minutes. MPAA rating: R. At Cinema 12 at the North Dartmouth Mall and Flagship Cinemas in New Bedford.

Perhaps I am not the ideal audience for Instinct. Such heavy message movies are meant to be inspirational and uplifting, but they mostly just make me angry — they inspire me to uplift myself from the theater seat and head for the exit. Instinct is yet another spiritual weepie that decries human follies and yet puts a happy face on it all. It serves up chicken soup for the soul while pretending that the soup isn't made of dead chickens.

The movie runs on a low-powered, inoffensive Hollywood engine — the same one that kept Phenomenon chugging all the way to the bank. I mention that 1996 John Travolta weepie because it, like Instinct, was directed by Jon Turteltaub and written by Gerald DiPego. Both movies stack the deck for themselves by taking a star most people like and casting him as an ordinary guy with unusual passions who is persecuted, poked, and prodded for his troubles. These men are better than you and me, you see; they are in tune with nature, the cosmos, and movie clichés.

In Instinct, the misunderstood saint is Anthony Hopkins as Dr. Ethan Powell, an anthropologist who lived among the gorillas in the African wild for two years. At some point, Powell went bonkers, killing two men and seriously wounding three others. The movie somberly works up to the big revelation (What drove him to murder?) as if we couldn't already guess, as if we hadn't seen Gorillas in the Mist. I guess Dr. Theo Calder (Cuba Gooding Jr.) hasn't seen it either; this ambitious young shrink can break through a woman's Pope obsession early in the movie, but he takes forever to figure out what makes Powell tick.

Aside from the director and writer, both of whom have yet to impress me, Instinct is the feeble one-handed work of many talented hands (including the two Oscar-winning stars) who have seen much better days. Ace cinematographer Philippe Rousselot (who won his Oscar for A River Runs Through It) finds no beauty in the lush African jungle; top-flight monster-maker

Stan Winston (he got his Oscar for Aliens) builds some fake gorillas, but unfortunately he's no Rick Baker, and the noble beasts are elegantly-sculpted, blatantly obvious latex. Even the usually idiosyncratic Danny Elfman (no Oscars yet, but two nominations) falls into sub-Lion King drums and weepy violins for his score here. As for the stars, Hopkins does nothing he hasn't done before, and Gooding Jr. overdoes Theo's sensitivity; he always seems just about to cry, and when he finally does, it doesn't move us.

There's about enough material here for an hour-long episode of TV drama, so the filmmakers toss in a lot of extraneous padding, like Powell's estranged daughter (poor Maura Tierney, stuck with some of the worst lines) and every sequence dealing with the backward prison where Powell is being held — an allegedly heart-tugging moment involving the defiant ripping of playing cards should be ripe for vicious parody if the movie is a hit.

Which it may well be. Instinct may fill a need in the mass audience, just as Phenomenon did and Patch Adams did. Apparently we need to be told that we've lost our way, that we've misplaced our souls on the fast track to the millennium. Which may very well be true, but these movies also tell us that we can regain our nobility if we just believe, and open our hearts, and go stand out in the rain or something. Are people so stressed and spiritually exhausted now that they need to find meaning in this hypocritical Hollywood New Age stuff? (I'd like to know how many natural resources were conserved in the making of Instinct.) Past a certain point, chicken soup for the soul becomes horse manure for the brain.

This Week's Horoscope

by Linda Black

Weekly Tip: The sun is in Gemini culminating with a new moon. This is definitely going to be a good time for communications.

Aries (March 21-April 19). Finish old business so you can rip and tear. You'll be at your most powerful.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). Spend a little extra time in nurturing. It'll make a big difference. You'll be under pressure to get something finished.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). Be a little more patient than usual to get your way with an older person, especially. Don't try to rush things. Things will move much more quickly soon.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). Be careful traveling. There could be complications out there. Pay attention to authority figures.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). You should be concerned about financial matters. Pay attention to your money. Looks like sports activities and travel will be fine.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Consult with your partner before taking action. Also check on your savings account and investments.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Pay close attention to your work. The assignment is not going to be laid out for you. You'll have to figure out what needs to be done, and do it.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Get your work schedule organized so you'll have plenty of time left over for romance. You'll be too busy for any hanky-panky. Just take care of the business that needs to be done.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Stay close to home. You might be feeling a little under the weather, so just take it easy. You'll feel better soon, so schedule sports activities.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). You'll be sharp. You'll be able to figure out what needs to be done, even if you're not told directly. There will be all sorts of stressful situations going on.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Go shopping, especially if you're buying gifts. That's not a bad idea. It could help alleviate a problem that developed recently.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). There's something at home that has to be dealt with. You should come up with good ideas, so write them down.

If You're Having a Birthday This Week: You could perform brilliantly in your career and advance to the next level. Make that your intention.

THE WORD GUY

By Rob Kyff
wordguy@aol.com

If you're asked to write a recommendation for a student, colleague or employee, you have three options.

You can damn with faint praise ("He showed up on time every day").

You can faint with damn praise ("She's absolutely, positively the most outstanding employee I've ever had!").

Or you can prey with damn feints ("While Melvin's colossal incompetence can be trying at times, I generally found him to be a cheerful and diligent employee").

One technique favored by savvy recommenders is sly ambiguity. What's meant, for instance, by "You should waste no time in interviewing him," or, "She's someone you should consider carefully," or, "He's very smart, if not brilliant"?

As the following bloopers collected by Richard Ledrer show, even a single spelling error can create a "wreck"amendation: "She received a B.A. in international relations (magna cum laude) at U.S.C. and pursued graduate students at the London School of Economics." "I ... recommend this typo of person for the job."

But sometimes you just have to tell the truth. That's just what these British naval officers did in their fitness reports for subordinates (e-mailed to me by an anonymous wag):

"His men would follow him anywhere, but only out of curiosity."

"He would be out of his depth in a parking lot puddle."

"This young lady has delusions of adequacy."

"He has carried out each and every one of his duties to his entire satisfaction."

"This officer is really not so much of a has-been, but more of a definitely won't-be."

"Since my last report, he has reached rock bottom and has started to dig."

"She sets low personal standards and then consistently fails to achieve them."

"The only ship I would recommend this man for is citizenship."

"He has the wisdom of youth, and the energy of old age."

"In my opinion, this pilot should not be authorized to fly below 250 feet."

"This man is depriving a village somewhere of an idiot."

Saturday, June 26 from 10:00 am to 5:00 pm in the historic center of Fairhaven. This is one of the largest, most popular public events held each year.

"For Sentimental Reasons," an evening of 1940's music and nostalgia, will return to Fairhaven's Town Hall on Friday, June 25 to open the weekend's Homecoming Celebration. class alumni reunion will be held at the high school. Fairhaven High School will also be open on Sunday, June 27 from 1:00 to 4:00 pm.

Originally based on the traditional "Old Home Days" popular throughout New England at the turn of the century, the Homecoming Day Fair features 175 booths of arts and crafts made by artisans from all over the Northeast. Foods, including stuffed quahogs, Portuguese linguiça and caçoila sandwiches, and other fare are made by the Fairhaven non-profit and church groups. A luncheon will also be served inside the Centre United Methodist Church. Live entertainment and an art show are also featured. All day there will be rides on an antique fire engine for the children. The fair draws thousands of families, friends and visitors from around the country.

The town's center, where the fair is set, is an attraction in itself. The public buildings donated to Fairhaven about a hundred years ago by Standard Oil Company millionaire Henry Huttleston Rogers are splendid examples of European-style architecture in America. Visitors can see an Italian Renaissance library, a French Gothic Town Hall, and the magnificent Unitarian Memorial Church, modeled after a 15th century English Gothic cathedral. The buildings were all designed by noted New England architect Charles Brigham and are surrounded by unique herringbone pattern brick sidewalks.
